Merrick is a large family bungalow with its own spacious garden. It is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac location and is equally suited to families or groups of friends. Accommodating up to six guests in one double, one twin and one bunk bedded room, Merrick has a well-equipped modern kitchen, a large comfortable lounge/dining room and a bathroom with bath and shower over. Externally there is a mature garden with many exotic plants and shrubs. The heart of Hugh Town and the quay are less than a ten-minute walk away while a fifteen-minute stroll in the opposite direction will take you into Old Town. Merrick is also very close to the coastal path, which makes it a convenient base for exploring and enjoying the very best the islands have to offer
